JCC Chicago's annual fundraiser, Cocktails. Conversation. Community., took place on Thursday, Oct. 24, in Highland Park.

The evening was a celebration of JCC Chicago's award-winning programs and experiences, and a way to honor lay leaders and volunteers whose deep and longstanding commitment to the J is taking the agency to new heights.

JCC Chicago was proud to welcome Midtown's Alan Schwartz, founder, and Steven Schwartz, President/CEO, as the keynote speakers.
